Dear Gary,

If you have Curry's book, you may want to examine the picture on page 31. Look at the two parked railroad cars and think of the Fred stuff and what I've been trying to tell you. Then tell me where the train is from which those assassins/paymasters were removed!

These cars are parallel, on the main tracks rather than on a sid: right behind the TSBD, and there is no train visible, as it would have to have been for Sprague's stuff to be within any possibility of stretching into something. This picture was taken at most no more than a minute after last shot and probably less time than taht.

I haven't studied this, but I think a glance is enough to put an end to the Fred thing.

Sprague may have a print that is clearer, not having the screen. Mary ought to be able to get it.

Hurriedly,
